Fair Play Commission of the National Olympic Committee of Azerbaijan (AzFPC) was founded in 1997. Since its establishment, AzFPC has established a high level of relations with European Fair Play Movement (EFPM) and, as well as, International Fair Play Committee (CIFP). The Commission is actively involved in the Congress and General Assemblies of both continental and also international organization.

We would like to bring to your attention the work done by the AzFPC during the 2018-2019 season.

On November 22-23, 2018, the 24th Congress and Assembly of the EFPM, held in Brussels, Belgium, was the first event of the season. At the event, our country was represented by the vice-president of the NOC, chairman of the AzFPC, Khazar Isayev and the responsible secretary of the commission Aysel Sultanova. Representatives of more than 30 member countries of the EFPM, as well as the various religions residing in Belgium, attended the Congress of the European Regional Committee.

One of the events organized by the AzFPC is an educational seminar on December 14, 2018, jointly with the Azerbaijan National Anti-Doping Agency (ANAD) and “Gomrukchu” Sport Club. Speaking at the event, Chairman of the AzFPC, Khazar Isayev, said that the main purpose of the seminar was to inform the athletes about anti-doping violations and the doping control process. Noting that doping preparations pose a serious threat to human life, Isaev stressed the importance of educating athletes, especially young athletes, about the harmful effects of doping drugs. Participants were informed about penalties in case of non-compliance with anti-doping rules.

Adhering to its tradition, AzFPC will continue to work towards promoting universal values and ethical norms in the community in the coming years, strengthening the fight against the negative effects of various sporting events, and providing positive examples to the community.

Kind regards,
Vice-president of NOC Azerbaijan,
Chairman of AzFPC

Khazar Isayev
