

OLYMPIC COMMITTEE OF SLOVENIA

SLOVENIAN
OLYMPIC ACADEMY

RECIPIENT

European Fair Play Movement
President
Mr. Christian Hinterberger

CITY, DATE

Ljubljana, 19.11.2018

SUBJECT

Slovenian National Report for the European Fair Play Movement

Dear President,

The Olympic Committee of Slovenia, together with the Ministry of Education, Science and Sport, the Slovenian Sports Journalists Association and national sport and educational organisations, is leading the National Campaign for promoting sporting behaviour. Through the campaign, we promote values and fair play, we nominate best fair play performance and point out inappropriate behaviours and actions, violence and irregularities in sport. As part of the campaign we lead the whistle-blower portal for reporting irregularities in sport.

The Ambassador of Sport, Tolerance and Fair Play, Mr. Miroslav Cerar, and his deputies Ms. Petra Majdic and Dr. Stanislav Pinter play an important role in the campaign. They lecturer at events and workshops, they are role-models for fair play and they promote sports values and sporting behaviour through a direct approach to different target groups as well as for a wider audience through media.

The most important parts / aspects of the campaign are:

- Promotion of sports and fair play values for children and youth,
- Activities for promotion of sports and fair play values in media,
- Educational and promotional activities for young and elite athletes,
- Educational and promotional activities for coaches and representatives of sports and educational organisations,
- Nominations for best fair play examples,
- Awards for fair play performance,
- Participation of the ambassadors and deputies at sports and other public events in Slovenia,
- Cooperation with EFPM and CIFP.

OLYMPIC COMMITTEE OF SLOVENIA

SLOVENIAN OLYMPIC ACADEMY

Šmartinska cesta 140
1000 Ljubljana
Slovenia

www.olympic.si

T +386 (0)1 230 60 00
F +386 (0)1 230 60 20
E info@olympic.si

The general objectives of the campaign follow the NOC Slovenia and Slovenian National Sport Programme “To build a better Slovenia through Sport”, with the aim of instilling sports values and fair play into the “behaviour” of athletes and all those participating in sport as well as those who support or follow sport.

To achieve the predicted objectives and strategic plan, on an annual basis, we organise:

- Nominations for a fair play award.
- Presenting national awards for fair play.
- Operation of the whistle-blower portal Zvizgavka for reporting irregularities in sport.
- Implementation of workshops for talented young athletes
- Promotion of sport and fair play values at events for children and youth (Mini Olympiads, Olympic sport hours, School sport competitions)

Yours sincerely,

Miroslav Cerar

Ambassador of Sport, Tolerance and Fair Play of the Republic of Slovenia

Attached:

- Report on Fair Play Activities in Slovenia between October 2017 – November 2018