Turkish Olympic Committee (TOC)
Turkey

The Fair Play has been brought to the agenda of national Olympic Commissions, which are all affiliated with the International Olympic Committee (IOC), following the recognition of the International Fair Play Committee (CIFP) by the IOC in 1981. The first Fair Play Commission in Turkey was formed at a meeting of TOC Board of Directors convened under the Chairmanship of Turgut Atakol on November 17, 1981. TOC has been organizing Turkish Fair Play Awards since this date in order to promote the concept of Fair Play across the country and encourage citizens to make Fair Play an integral part of their daily lives. The efforts in this regard are carried out by TOC Fair Play Commission.

- 1. Universities Fair Play Caravan Project: It is the most great local project all over the world. Turkish National Olympic Committee Fair Play Commission has visited 60 universities since 2014. After the Covid-19 pandemic, the project will start again and they will visit the left universities.

2. First Fair Play Photograph Contest:

TOC started a Fair Play Photography Contest, the first of which was reviewed, in 2019. The aim is to gain knowledge by reinforcing the concept of Fair Play with the spirit of all the equipment of the world. The subject and theme of the photos nominated for the award must be Fair Play. Apart from the members of the competition selection committee and their first degree relatives (relatives), amateur, professional by all proportions. Photographs that have previously received gifts, exhibited and published cannot participate in the competition.

First Fair Play Photography Contest was awarded with CIFP grand prize (Trophy).

3. Fair Play Honor Flag: The sports club that attaches the most importance to fair play will be rewarded with the Fair Play Honor Flag. The project started for 2021.
4. 100 Days for Fair Play: EFPM has initiated the challenge “100 DAYS FOR FAIR PLAY” The celebration of the 2nd World Fair Play Day on September 7th in Budapest highlighted this project. TOC Fair Play Commission Member Assos. Prof Sevim GULLU organized the project in Turkey. There were 10 teams for the challenge. All participants were awarded medals and certificates. The victory went to the Turkish team “Gentlemen of Mülkiye”.

5. Fair Play Book in Sport and Life by Remzi YILMAZ: The book Fair Play in Life and Sports, which was compiled by TOC Fair Play Commission member and journalist Remzi Yılmaz was published. The full list of Turkey Fair Play Award winners, Fair Play Award winners Turks, European Fair Play Award winners for Turks, and the history of the Fair Play movement in the world and in Europe since 1982.

- 6. Fair Play Course: Fair Play begins to be taught as a bachelor lesson in Istanbul University-Cerrahpasa Faculty of Sport Sciences by Assoc.Prof. Sevim GULLU. She teaches about Fair Play history in the world, Europea and Turkey, why ethics is necessary for sports and life, the activities of EFPM, CIFP and TOC etc.

7. Fair Play Conversations in Youtube: Fair Play Talks, the program of the Turkish Sports Agency, which is followed with interest, is organized with the participation of valuable guests. The program tries to spread the spirit of fair play with the examples and videos it gives every week with the names who are experts in their fields and who have determined Fair Play as their philosophy of life. The program is presented by TOC Fair Play Commission Member Remzi Yılmaz. In the program where examples of fair play that have been experienced and rewarded in Turkey and the world are explained, videos and photos with fair play are also shared with the audience.
